

Devotional resources that people in our congregation have found helpful.

Bible in One year from Holy Trinity Brompton

Nicky Gumbel is the pioneer of Alpha and Vicar of Holy Trinity Brompton in London, which he leads with his wife Pippa. Together, they introduced the Bible in One Year commentary in 2009 as a daily email for their congregation. Since then, it has become a successful app, book, podcast and website with a global following. Join them today as they take you through every chapter and verse of the Bible, sharing their reflections and prayers along the way.

Experiencing God by H & R Blackaby

Where some might say, "Don't just stand there, do something," Blackaby answers "Don't just do something, STAND THERE." Be still and wait on the Lord.

The Bible Reading Challenge

It works through the Old Testament once and New Testament twice in a year, and they have podcasts going more in depth for each book of the bible. There's men and women's facebook groups to ask questions and encourage each other along.

Jesus Calling – Enjoying Peace in His Presence by Sarah Young

This yearly devotional might be for busy Mums who really struggle with time. "Jesus Calling - Enjoying Peace in His Presence" by Sarah Young. I've been doing this one for the past year and have found it so helpful to recentre and focus on God for the day - really refreshing and very achievable. They are daily letters written as though Jesus is speaking directly to you with verses to meditate on each day.
